

Other sources

Other resources Unit 1. Interactive map of languages at risk.

National Geographic. Disappearing languages. Look at this interactive map and find information about five languages at risk in different parts of the world.

<http://travel.nationalgeographic.com/travel/enduring-voices/#>

Other resources Unit 2. Eurominorities: interactive map.

Search for a minority in the interactive map and compare it to other European minorities

www.eurominority.eu/version/eng/minority-map.asp

Other resources Unit 3. Common European Framework of Reference

Watch this video and discuss the Common European Framework of Reference

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ZDPeP-gCU5E>

Other resources Unit 4. The Cognitive Benefits of Being Bilingual

Which are the main benefits of being bilingual according to this article?

<http://dana.org/news/cerebrum/detail.aspx?id=39638>

Other resources Unit 5. New York Times: If Bilingual Is Good, Is Trilingual Better?

Discuss the differences between some Asian countries (India, Sri Lanka) and the US regarding trilingualism

<http://india.blogs.nytimes.com/2012/03/20/if-bilingual-is-good-is-trilingual-better/>

Other resources Unit 6. Pixka bat es mucho.

This video is about language policy to promote the use of Basque. Do you think it can be effective?

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ZjCo4rMsaWA>