

Evaluation form for the oral exposition

Evaluation score:

INSUFFICIENT (I): The group does not accomplish the minimum criteria. (0 p)

SUFFICIENT (S): the group accomplishes some of the tasks proposed in the criteria but with certain difficulties. (1 p)

GOOD (G): the group accomplished most of the tasks proposed in the criteria in an efficient and correct manner. (2 p)

EXCELLENT (E): the group accomplished all of the tasks proposed in the criteria in an efficient and correct manner. (3 p)

CRITERIA AND EVALUATION SCORE		I (0 p)	S (1 p)	G (2 p)	E (3 p)
ORAL PRESENTATION	SPEECH: Talks slowly and explains in a clear and flowing manner.
	CONTENT: Shows that knows the contents of the topic and is able to show during the exposition.
	VOCABULARY: uses vocabulary that is appropriate for the audience.
	EXPLANATIONS: explains the images are shown.
	VOLUME: uses the appropriate volume to be listened by the audience during the presentation
	POSITION: the body position and language are appropriate, explaining in a relaxed manner and contacts the audience in a natural manner
	ATTENTION: is able to maintain the attention during all the exposition
	PRONUNCIATION: pronounces the technical words adequately in English
	SIGNPOSTING: uses the signposting in a correct manner
	Responds to the audience or professor's questions.
UTILIZACIÓN DE LOS RECURSOS.	The PPT file is well structured, containing an introduction, development and conclusions of the topic.
	The PPT file contains a proper format, following certain standards, slides with headings, properly distributed text and with correct color fonts.
	Presents the relevant points without including many text words.
	The used visual resources are adequate and correspond to the topic presented, both in terms of number and quality.
	The established time limit is respected.
RESEARCH WORK	The contents that have been delivered correspond to the requirements

OBSERVATIONS:

FINAL SCORE: